DETAILED ACTION

Specification

1. Applicant is reminded of the proper content of an abstract of the disclosure.

A patent abstract is a concise statement of the technical disclosure of the patent and should include that which is new in the art to which the invention pertains. If the patent is of a basic nature, the entire technical disclosure may be new in the art, and the abstract should be directed to the entire disclosure. If the patent is in the nature of an improvement in an old apparatus, process, product, or composition, the abstract should include the technical disclosure of the improvement. In certain patents, particularly those for compounds and compositions, wherein the process for making and/or the use thereof are not obvious, the abstract should set forth a process for making and/or use thereof. If the new technical disclosure involves modifications or alternatives, the abstract should mention by way of example the preferred modification or alternative.

The abstract should not refer to purported merits or speculative applications of the invention and should not compare the invention with the prior art.

Where applicable, the abstract should include the following:

- (1) if a machine or apparatus, its organization and operation;
- (2) if an article, its method of making;
- (3) if a chemical compound, its identity and use;
- (4) if a mixture, its ingredients;
- (5) if a process, the steps.

Extensive mechanical and design details of apparatus should not be given.

2. Applicant is reminded of the proper language and format for an abstract of the disclosure.

The abstract should be in narrative form and generally limited to a single paragraph on a separate sheet within the range of 50 to 150 words. It is important that the abstract not exceed 150 words in length since the space provided for the abstract on the computer tape used by the printer is limited. The form and legal phraseology often used in patent claims, such as "means" and "said," should be avoided. The abstract should describe the disclosure sufficiently to assist readers in deciding whether there is a need for consulting the full patent text for details.

The language should be clear and concise and should not repeat information given in the title. It should avoid using phrases which can be implied, such as, "The disclosure concerns," "The disclosure defined by this invention," "The disclosure describes," etc.

Art Unit: 3749

3. The abstract of the disclosure is objected to because it failed to include an air distribution bar with its organization and operation and be in a narrative form within the range of 50-150 words. Correction is required. See MPEP § 608.01(b).

Claim Objections

4. Claims 2-3 are objected to because of the following informalities: claim 2, line 2, please change "claiming arms" to --clamping arms--. Appropriate correction is required.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 1-3 are allowable over prior art.

Conclusion

6. This application is in condition for allowance except for the following formal matters:

See above paragraphs 1-4.

Prosecution on the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

A shortened statutory period for reply to this action is set to expire TWO MONTHS from the mailing date of this letter.

7. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Zagar (u. S. pat. 5,070,726), Hella et al. (U. S. Pat. 5,105,562), Kurie (U. S. Pat. 5,395,029), Bartell (U. S. Pat. 5,924,619) all show an air distribution bar/nozzle which creates coanda effect.
